Beautiful Mountain Living with Great Views Only 10 Minutes from Central Boulder

Property Description
This home, originally built in the early '70s and extensively remodeled in 2003 by Boulder architect Dominque Gettliffe, may have one of the best Indian Peaks views in Boulder County this close to town (only 10 minutes from downtown Boulder and 3.3 miles up Sunshine Canyon). The low altitude (< 7,000 feet) sets it apart from most mountain homes that have much harsher weather conditions and much longer commutes to town). Though it has the prestigious "Sunshine "Canyon" address, this home sit ... more info online
